

DESCRIPTION AND QUANTIFIERS

Exercise 1: Describing Objects

Look at the descriptions below and identify the object being described.

1. It is round, bounces, and is often used in sports like basketball or soccer. What is it?
2. This object is rectangular, made of paper, and you use it to read stories or learn new things. What is it?
3. It has four legs, a flat surface, and is used to hold objects like food, books, or computers. What is it?
4. This object is used to listen to music or make phone calls. It has small earpieces and wires or may be wireless. What is it?
5. It is flat, electronic, and used to communicate or browse the internet. You can carry it in your pocket. What is it?

Exercise 2: Fill in the blanks with quantifiers

Choose the correct quantifier (much, many, few, a few, little, a little, some, any, no) to complete the sentences.

1. There aren't _____ people at the party.
2. I have _____ books on that subject. I can lend you one if you like.
3. How _____ sugar do you want in your tea?
4. She has _____ friends in this city.
5. We need _____ more time to finish the project.
6. He didn't have _____ money left after the trip.
7. Is there _____ water in the bottle?
8. I have _____ knowledge about quantum physics, but not enough to explain it in detail.

9. They gave us _____ instructions on how to use the equipment.
10. She has _____ patience, so don't keep her waiting too long.

Exercise 3: Choose the correct quantifier

Choose the correct quantifier for each sentence.

1. There is (much / many) traffic today.
2. I don't have (much / many) homework tonight.
3. They brought (some / any) snacks to the party.
4. Do you have (some / any) questions?
5. I found (few / little) information about the event online.
6. We have (a little / a few) apples left in the fridge.
7. They didn't bring (some / any) water bottles with them.
8. I'd like (a little / a few) help with this task.
9. She has (too much / too many) clothes in her closet.
10. There are (a little / a few) chairs available in the room.

Exercise 4: Describing an Object

Describe the following objects in 3-4 sentences.

1. A smartphone
2. A bicycle
3. A backpack
4. A refrigerator
5. A book

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERSExercise 1: Replace the nouns with pronouns

1. He loves playing soccer with them.
2. She gave them their homework.
3. They are visiting her this weekend.
4. We watched a movie together.
5. It followed us to the park.
6. His car is faster than his.

Exercise 2: Fill in the blanks with the correct relative pronoun

1. The girl who won the race is my friend.
2. This is the place where we met last year.
3. I have a friend whose father is a famous author.
4. The book that I'm reading is very interesting.
5. Is there anyone who can help me with this problem?
6. The restaurant where we had dinner was really good.
7. That's the house where I grew up.
8. The movie that you recommended was great.

Exercise 3: Combine the sentences using relative pronouns

1. I met a man who is an engineer.
2. She has a dog that is very friendly.
3. This is the park where I used to play as a child.
4. They are the students who won the competition.
5. That's the car that I bought last week.
6. The boy whose bike is red is my brother.
7. I know the woman who works at the coffee shop.

Exercise 4: Correct the mistakes with pronouns and relative pronouns

1. The man whom I spoke to was very helpful.
2. I gave her a present for her birthday.
3. This is the house that my grandmother built.
4. The students, who came late, missed the presentation.
5. He's the teacher who teaches science.
6. Can you give me the book?
7. The movie, which was about space, was very interesting.

Exercise 5: Choose the correct pronoun

1. He is my best friend.

2. The gift is for them.
3. I don't know whom to trust.
4. We are planning a trip to Paris.
5. Can you tell whose coat this is?
6. She and I went to the concert together.
7. The book that I borrowed is overdue.