

Comparatives and Superlatives

Instructions: Read the text carefully and answer the questions below.

Tom and Jerry are good friends who love to compete in various sports and activities. Last week, they had a friendly race in the park. Tom is generally faster than Jerry, which gives him an advantage in short sprints. However, Jerry is known for being more careful and strategic. During the race, Tom decided to take a shortcut, which helped him finish first. After the race, Tom boasted, “I am the fastest runner in our group!” Jerry smiled and replied, “You may be the fastest for short distances, but I am better at running long distances.” Tom nodded in agreement, recognizing that each of them has their strengths. “You are the best long-distance runner I know,” he said, appreciating Jerry’s talent.

Questions:

1. Who is generally faster, Tom or Jerry?
2. What did Tom boast about after the race?
3. What did Jerry say about his own running ability?
4. How did Tom respond to Jerry’s strengths?
