

IMPERATIVE AND SUBJUNCTIVE

Imperative Mood:

1. Rewrite the sentences using the imperative form:

- You must not touch that button.
→ _____
- Please, be quiet during the movie.
→ _____
- You need to finish this report by 5 pm.
→ _____
- Remember to lock the door before leaving.
→ _____

2. Complete the sentences with appropriate imperatives:

- _____ your homework before going out.
- _____ here and explain what happened.
- _____ late tonight! We need to start on time.
- _____ careful when driving in the rain.

3. Match the imperative sentence with its purpose:

- a) Don't talk during the exam.
- b) Be sure to finish the assignment.
- c) Try this delicious cake.
- d) Keep the noise down, please.

- i) Giving advice
- ii) Making a suggestion
- iii) Giving instructions
- iv) Giving a command

Subjunctive Mood:4. Complete the sentences with the correct form of the verb in the subjunctive mood:

- It is essential that he (be) present at the meeting.
- I suggest that she (prepare) the documents in advance.
- The teacher recommended that the student (submit) the essay by Friday.
- It's important that everyone (stay) calm during the emergency.
- I wish he (come) to the party last night.

5. Choose the correct option (subjunctive mood):

- The doctor advised that she (rest / rests) for a few days.
- It is necessary that he (be / is) on time tomorrow.
- I wish it (were / was) sunny today.
- If I (were / was) you, I would take the offer.

6. Rewrite the sentences to use the subjunctive mood:

- It is necessary that she submits the application.

→ _____

- The manager insists that he arrives early.

→ _____

- I wish I was taller.

→ _____

- If I was rich, I would buy a house.

→ _____

7. Error correction:

Correct the errors in the following sentences:

- It is important that he is here on time.
- I wish she was here now.
- The boss demands that the report is finished today.
- If he was in charge, things would be different.

Questions and answers

1. Rewrite the sentences using the imperative form:

- You must not touch that button.
→ Don't touch that button.
- Please, be quiet during the movie.
→ Be quiet during the movie.
- You need to finish this report by 5 pm.
→ Finish this report by 5 pm.
- Remember to lock the door before leaving.
→ Lock the door before leaving.

2. Complete the sentences with appropriate imperatives:

- Do your homework before going out.
- Come here and explain what happened.
- Don't be late tonight! We need to start on time.
- Be careful when driving in the rain.

3. Match the imperative sentence with its purpose:

- a) Don't talk during the exam.
→ iv) Giving a command
- b) Be sure to finish the assignment.
→ iii) Giving instructions
- c) Try this delicious cake.
→ ii) Making a suggestion
- d) Keep the noise down, please.
→ i) Giving advice

Subjunctive Mood:

4. Complete the sentences with the correct form of the verb in the subjunctive mood:

- It is essential that he be present at the meeting.
- I suggest that she prepare the documents in advance.
- The teacher recommended that the student submit the essay by Friday.
- It's important that everyone stay calm during the emergency.
- I wish he had come to the party last night.

5. Choose the correct option (subjunctive mood):

- The doctor advised that she rest for a few days.
- It is necessary that he be on time tomorrow.

- I wish it were sunny today.
- If I were you, I would take the offer.

6. Rewrite the sentences to use the subjunctive mood:

- It is necessary that she submits the application.
→ It is necessary that she submit the application.
- The manager insists that he arrives early.
→ The manager insists that he arrive early.
- I wish I was taller.
→ I wish I were taller.
- If I was rich, I would buy a house.
→ If I were rich, I would buy a house.

7. Error correction:

- It is important that he be here on time.
- I wish she were here now.
- The boss demands that the report be finished today.
- If he were in charge, things would be different.