

Modal Verbs

Task: Write a dialogue between two friends discussing their weekend plans. Use at least five modal verbs, such as can, could, should, and must.

Guidelines:

- Start with "Alice said..."
- Include at least three exchanges between the friends.
- Use pronouns like "I," "you," or "we."

Example Starter:

Alice said, "I can go hiking this weekend if you join me." Bob replied, "I should check the weather first."

Scoring Rubric

Criteria (Total: 20 points per exercise)

1. Content (6 points)

- 6 points: The writing is fully developed with clear ideas, complete sentences, and relevant details.
- 4 points: The writing has some ideas but lacks depth or detail.
- 2 points: The writing is very limited with few ideas and little detail.
- 0 points: The writing does not address the prompt.

2. Grammar and Structure (6 points)

- 6 points: The writing uses the correct verb tenses consistently (simple past, simple present, present progressive).
- 4 points: There are a few grammatical errors, but they do not interfere with understanding.
- 2 points: Frequent grammatical errors make the writing hard to understand.

- 0 points: The writing has no clear structure or uses incorrect grammar throughout.
- Vocabulary and Word Choice (4 points)
- 4 points: The writing uses a variety of vocabulary and descriptive language effectively.
- 3 points: The writing uses some variety but is somewhat limited in word choice.
- 2 points: The vocabulary is very basic or repetitive.
- 0 points: The writing lacks any meaningful vocabulary.
- 3. Use of Required Elements (4 points)
- 4 points: All required elements (e.g., quantifiers, pronouns, relative pronouns) are included and used correctly.
- 3 points: Most required elements are included, with minor errors.
- 2 points: Some required elements are missing or used incorrectly.
- 0 points: None of the required elements are present.